Villages Covered by PDS

3305. SHRI S. RAMACHANDRAN PILLAI: Will the Minister of CONSUMER AFFAIRS, FOOD AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION be pleased to state:

(a) the number of villages covered by the PDS, State-wise;

(b) the mode of transport of PDS items into interior villages where metalled roads do not exist;

(c) how do Government ascertain that all the items in PDS reach to the villages; and

(d) how many times physical verifications were made during the last three years?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CONSUMER AFFAIRS AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION (SHRI SHRIRAM CHAUHAN): (a) As per reports received from the Stale Government/UT Administrations all villages in the country are covered under Public Distribution System (PDS) through a network of 368417 fair price shops in rural areas. Statewiselist of fair price shops in the country as reported by State Governmenl/UT Administrations is enclosed as statement (See below).

(b) State Governments/UT Administrations have adopted various locally suitable and available modes of transport e.g., tractors and trollies, jeep, mini-vans or light vehicles, bullock carts, mules, boats and.porters for transportation of PDS items to remote villages in areas where metalled roads do not exist.

(c) and (d) PDS is operated under the joint responsibility of Government of India and the State Government/UT Administrations. While the Central Government is responsible for procuring and making available to the States the PDS commodities up to the designated depots of FCI, the responsibility of distribution to the card holders through the network of fair price shops rests with the State Government. The States have been instructed to formulated and implement foolproof arrangments for delivery of PDS commodities to fair price shops and for their distribution in transparent and accountable manner. State Government have been instructed to conduct surprise checks on FPS and actively involve Panchyati Raj Institutions at FPS level for monitoring apart from activating Vigilance Committes at all levels.
